

EMERGENCY SERVICES DISPATCHER

RIVERCOM 911 in Wenatchee, WA is seeking qualified applicants for the fulltime position of Emergency Services Dispatcher. The ESD is responsible for processing emergency 911 and non-emergency calls-for-service and dispatching law, fire, and emergency medical public safety agencies in Chelan and Douglas counties. Applicants should possess excellent communication and decision-making skills, demonstrate ability to type 45 WPM, work effectively with diverse groups of people, and should be innovative and able to utilize new and evolving technologies. Position requires dedication, professionalism, integrity, and a high-level of confidentiality. Salary range $3,208-$3,775 DOE plus health insurance and retirement plan. Must be free from illegal drug use for at least 3 years prior to application. Employment is conditional on successfully passing drug screen, polygraph test, background investigation, psychological test, medical exam, and credit check. For more information and to apply for the position, follow application instructions located at our website: www.rivercom911.info. Application closing date is August 31, 2012.